With help and some practice, kids can develop an effective approach to getting stuff done. And you're the perfect person to teach your child, even if you don't feel all that organized yourself! Easy as 1-2-3. For kids, all tasks can be broken down into a 1-2-3 process.

Help Your Child Get Organized (for Parents) - Nemours ...

Many kids are overwhelmed by the prospect of fitting everything they have and want to do into the few short hours after school. Between homework, activities, and just time to play, there's a lot to do. But even though most kids don't have the cognitive skills to organize their schedules independently until middle school, you can start teaching them how to plan and prioritize their time now.
